

19 Posters/Abstracts in Support of TREK Presented at the 2004 ASM

This was a great ASM for presentations in support of TREK! For more information on these items, please scroll down ...

Sensititre®

Traczewski, M.M., et al. PROTEKT US Year 3: Activity of telithromycin against isolates of Streptococcus pneumoniae, Streptococcus pyogenes and Haemophilus influenzae from across the US in 2002-2003. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract. A1. 2004.

Lauderdale, T., P. Chen, I. Huang, J. Lai, Y. Shiao and H. Wang. Increasing fluoroquinolone resistance in Streptococcus pneumoniae in Taiwan. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A8. 2004.

Whichard, J.M., K. Gay, J.E. Stevenson, D. Wheeler, M. Omondi and T. Barrett. Concurrent quinolone and extended –spectrum cephalosporin resistance among human Salmonella isolates: results of 2002 NARMS monitoring. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A15. 2004.

Davis, T.A., C. Yee, K. Amsler, R. Goldschmidt, K. Bush, D.Sahm and A. Evangelista. Sporadic .occurrences of levofloxacin-resistant Streptococcus pneumoniae in the US: longitudinal analysis of 19 institutions from the New England and West South Central regions during the TRUST 4-7 (200-2003) surveillance studies. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A17, 2004.

Sand. C., R.Rennie, P. Kidsey, E.Zilkie and S.Mithani. Comparison of methods for antifungal susceptibility testing of Cryptococcus neoformans var. gattii isolated from an outbreak of pulmonary infection and meningitis. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract F4, 2004.

K. Knapp., S. Killian and C.Knapp. The antimicrobial effects of the organosulfa-compounds (OSC) , Allicin and S-allylcysteine (SAC) found in Allium sativum against Staphylococcus aureus (SA).American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A63, 2004.

Korgenski, E., D. Tille and J. Daly. Evaluation of four different methodologies for the detection of resistance in Streptococcus pneumoniae. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract C128. 2004.

Fritsche, T., R.Jones and J. Streit. Dalbavancin MIC testing: validation and test reproducibility of commercial reagents. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract C130. 2004.

Smith, K., S.Killian, G.Procop and G.Hall. Comparison of results of susceptibility testing of selected nonfermenters in the TREK Diagnostics NF dried panel and Vitek Legacy Automated System. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract C140, 2004.

N. Holiday., C. Knapp, S.Killian, T. Kelly and B.Goldstein. An evaluation of the Sensititre® dried susceptibility plate compared to the NCCLS (M7) reference broth microdilution method with the new antimicrobial agent Dalbavancin (Vicuron). American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A135, 2004.

Ge, Y., R. Blosser, D. Sahm and J. Karlowsky. In vitro activity of TAK-599, a new anti-MRSA cephalosporin against gram positive and gram negative clin. Isolates. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A139, 2004.

Kelly, T., S. Killian, C. Knapp, N. Holiday, M. Jacobs, S. Bajaksouzian, A. Winau, E. Molland, T. Lockhart, L. Olson and J. Black. A multictr. Comparison study of the Sensititre® automated/manual susceptibility tray to the NCCLS microdilution method for Streptococcus pneumoniae vs. Clindamycin. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A149, 2004.

Logue, C., J. Sherwood and C. Giddings. Antimicrobial resistance of E. coli recovered from treated cattle. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract Z31, 2004.

Garland, J., J. Gray and R. Minish. The natural transmission of Salmonella typhimurium in poultry with and without antimicrobial selective pressure. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract Z40, 2004.

Maddox, C., S. Lanka, J. Croix, I. Kokoma, R. Singer and A. Goldberg. Cephalosporin resistance in Campylobacter coli from swine. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract Z40, 2004.

Gray, L., J. Mortensen, K. Stigler, P. Schiffrin and R. Jarvis. Pilot study of the antimicrobial resistance of bacteria routinely isolated from companion animals in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract Z44, 2004.

Cullan, P., S. McDermott, P. Carter, J. Paige and D. Wagner. Prevalence and antimicrobial susceptibility profiles of Enterococcus spp. Isolated from plant based feed commodities- a national survey. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting Abstract A41, 2004.

VersaTREK

LaBombardi, V.J., Kamel, A. Comparison of the VersaTREK with the ESP Culture System II for Blood and Mycobacterial Culture and Detection. American Society of Microbiology General Meeting, Poster C-081, 2004.
